Abstract of the Talk	This webinar is aimed at highlighting how education 4.0 is a response to the needs of Industry 4.0 as well as in tandem to the National Education Policy (NEP-2020). The session shall uncover how with AI empowered Education 4.0 we expect to bridge the gap between industry and academia with better-prepared workforce. This revolution promises to empower students with better employability and better preparation for future. Thus with NEP-2020 at its backdrop, Education 4.0 comes at a time when Industry 4.0 is already underway and Artificial Intelligence (AI) disruptive technologies like have established themselves. This webinar shall help us appreciate the amalgamation of these powerful revolutions.

All are welcome:
