Notice regarding the Dress Code and Timings for the Examinations (Oct-Nov, 2019)

This is to inform all the students that college uniform is compulsory during the Internal Practical / End Term Practical Exams. All the students are required to come in uniform. Students not in proper dress-code / uniform will not be entertained for any reason.

The Internal Practical Examinations are commencing from Monday, October 21, 2019 in two shifts, i.e. 09:30 am to 12:30 am and 02:00 pm to 05:00 pm. The GGSIP University has made it a rule not to allow any student to enter the examination hall after the exam starts. In compliance with the same, all students are hereby informed that they are required to reach the examination room 15 minutes before the commencements, viz morning shift at 09:15 am and after shift, 01:45pm.

The students will not be allowed to enter the exam hall after the exam starts which means not allowed to take the exam if you reach after 09:30 am or after 02:00 pm.

Points to be taken care of by students for Practical Exams:

- All the students must be formally dressed-up
- The students must bring their practical files along.
- The practical files must have been duly checked by their respective faculties before they are presented before the Examiner else the Examiner may decide not to conduct viva of such student(s).
- The attendance in the Practical Examination (s) is compulsory for all students.
