

Film Appreciation (BAJMC-309) Pre-requisite based Study Material

by

Bhaskar Abhigyan

(Associate Professor, BVICAM, New Delhi)

2023

Pre-Requisite Modules

Lecture Slides- Pre-requisite based Study Material, Film Appreciation by Mr. Bhaskar Abhigyan.

Visual Literacy

- Understanding Composition: Ability to analyze how visual elements are composed in a frame.
- Decoding Visual Cues: Proficiency in decoding visual cues, such as lighting, color, and framing.
- Interpreting Symbolism: Capability to interpret symbolic visuals and their impact on storytelling.
- Awareness of Cinematic Techniques: Familiarity with basic cinematic techniques like camera angles and movements.

Interest in Cinema

- Exploration of Genres: A desire to explore various film genres, from classic to contemporary.
- Inquisitiveness about Filmmaking: Interest in understanding the filmmaking process and behind-the-scenes aspects.
- Enthusiasm for Film Culture: A passion for discussing films, attending film festivals, and engaging in film-related discussions.
- Appreciation for Diverse Cinemas: Willingness to appreciate films from different cultures and cinematic traditions.

Basic Film Knowledge

- Familiarity with Classics: Knowledge of classic films and their significance in the history of cinema.
- Understanding Film Genres: Familiarity with major film genres like drama, comedy, thriller, etc.
- Recognition of Directors: Awareness of renowned directors and their contributions to the world of cinema.
- Awareness of Film Movements: Basic understanding of major film movements such as the New Wave or Neo-Realism.

Open-Mindedness

- Acceptance of Diverse Perspectives: A receptive attitude towards diverse storytelling methods and cultural representations.
- Willingness to Challenge Assumptions: Openness to challenging preconceived notions about film and its impact on society.
- Readiness for Experimental Films: A willingness to explore experimental films and unconventional narrative structures.
- Appreciation for Subjectivity: Acknowledgment that interpretations of films can be subjective, and there can be multiple valid perspectives.

Critical Thinking Skills

- Analyzing Plot Structures: Capability to critically analyze and deconstruct plot structures in films.
- Evaluation of Character Development: Ability to assess character development and its contribution to storytelling.
- Interpretation of Symbolism: Proficiency in interpreting symbolic elements and their thematic implications.
- Questioning Filmmaker's Choices: Readiness to question and analyze a filmmaker's choices in storytelling, cinematography, and editing.

Cultural Awareness

- Appreciation of Cultural Context: Understanding how cultural context influences the creation and reception of films.
- Recognition of Cultural Symbols: Awareness of cultural symbols and motifs portrayed in films.
- Understanding Cultural Sensitivity: Sensitivity to cultural representations in films and their potential impact.
- Exploration of Global Cinemas: Curiosity about films from various cultures and regions around the world.

Curiosity for Film History

- Exploration of Cinematic Evolution: Curiosity about how cinema has evolved over different eras and technological advancements.
- Knowledge of Film Milestones: Awareness of key milestones in the history of cinema.
- Understanding Film Technology Changes: Knowledge about technological changes and innovations in filmmaking.
- Appreciation for Film Heritage: Recognizing the importance of preserving and appreciating film heritage.

Film Appreciation- Pre Requisite

Thank You